Church Sponsors Banquet

This past Friday night at 8 p.m. at the Holiday Inn in Lynchburg, the Ladies Prayer Circle sponsored a banquet for the benefit of the young people of the Bible Baptist Church in the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades. There were twenty-nine in attendance. The church felt it was a privilege to honor our young people with a Formal Christian Banquet. The event was such a success that it will be repeated each year from now on. Rev. David Ralston from Raleigh, North Carolina was the guest speaker and brought a very timely message concerning the problems that face Christian young people.
Several of the young people gave their testimony and the banquet was ended with prayer by David Knight. A special "thanks" went to Mrs. Dorothy Wallace, who was in charge of making all the arrangements. Included in the picture above are Debbie Pierce and Danny Cooter, Deborah Lucas and Robert Ayers, Judy Johnson and Billy Mann, Mary Ayers and Mike Wallace, Debbie Childress and Emmitt Knight, Janice Doss and Ben Bryant, Teresa Lucas and David Knight, Debbie Cooter and Butch Bryant, Donna Stanley and Emmitt Tolbert.

Diahann Carroll, NBC-TV's "Julia," says there are two ways to fight cancer: with a checkup (see your doctor) and a check (send your donation to the American Cancer Society).

Youth To Demonstrate At Liberty

Yes . . . delightful demonstrations of cooperation and spiritual concern are to be heard and seen at the Coffee House Dialogue, Saturday evening, May 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the educational building of the Liberty Baptist Church. This demonstration has been planned by the youth of the Appomattox Baptist Association.
The Coffee House Dialogue will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will last about one hour and fifteen minutes. After the Coffee Dialogue everyone will go to the fellowship hall for skits and refreshments.
Our guest for the evening is Ray Mears, Associate Pastor of the Central Baptist Church of Altavista, Virginia. Ray is a folk singer, a youth director, a speaker, and above all a concerned Christian. Don't miss this great Demonstration!

CASH DIVIDEND

The Board of Directors of Fidelity American Bankshares, Inc. has declared a quarterly cash dividend of twenty-five cents per share, payable Aug. 1, 1971 to shareholders of record as of July 9, 1971. The action was taken at the board's regular quarterly meeting held in Lynchburg.
Payment of the dividend has been changed from July 1 to August 1 in order to combine the mailing of the dividend check with the corporation's quarterly statement of condition.
